

Alexandra SMEDOIU

CFA,
Partner, Deloitte

Alexandra is the Partner in charge with the corporate income tax practice of Deloitte Romania; she specializes in advising multinational companies and local entrepreneurs on local tax matters, as well as international tax structures. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in International Business and Economics and a Master's Degree in International Project Management.

She is a regular speaker at business events, writer of specialty articles and expert opinions in local newspapers, as well as a trainer at numerous trainings on various tax topics. She was also extensively involved in advocacy matters related to tax legislation applicable to banks, investment funds and insurance companies.

Alexandra is a Chartered Financial Analyst® chart holder and a Vice-President of CFA Society Romania, a non-profit organization that reunites top professionals in the financial services industry. She is also a member of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA), a member of the Chartered Institute of Taxation (CIOT UK) and a member of the local Chamber of Tax Consultants.